

Attendance Policy for Football

For safety and fairness to fellow players, attendance requirements and associated discipline for ORJT participants will be as follows:

- If a football player misses 1 practice in a week (unexcused), their playing time will be reduced for the next game they attend (at the coaches' discretion).
- If they miss two practices in a week (unexcused), they will automatically sit out the next game they attend (at the coaches' discretion).
- Players will be allowed 3 unexcused absences during the course of the season, after which they will be required to sit out the next game they attend for each unexcused absence.
- Repeated violations of this policy may result in suspension dismissal, and/or Membership termination as outlined in Article III, Section 4. of ORTJ Bi-Laws.

NOTE: This policy does not apply to excused absences, which are defined as academic functions, church functions, family emergencies, and serious medical illnesses (requires a signed, verifiable note and phone number from a doctor).

I HAVE READ THIS POLICY AND AS THE PARTENT/LEAGL GUARDIAN OF _____
I AGREE TO THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS SET FORTH BY OAK RIDGE JR. TROJANS FOR THE FOOTBALL SEASON OF ATTENDANCE.
